

Foreword and Acknowledgements

© Financial Rights Legal Centre | 2024

ABN 40 506 635 273

This toolkit is copyright. Non-profit community groups have permission to reproduce parts of this book as long as the original meaning is retained, and proper acknowledgement is given. All other persons and organisations wanting to reproduce material from this book should obtain permission from Financial Rights Legal Centre.

This 2024 publication is updated from the first 2014 edition which was written by Karen Cox of Financial Rights Legal Centre and Steve Snelgrove of Lismore and District Financial Counselling, with input from Bob Cruickshanks, formerly of the Insolvency Trustee Service of Australia, as it was then known.

The 2024 publication is again a collaborative work, led by Karen Cox, CEO of Financial Rights with substantial input from Alexandra Kelly, Director of Casework with Financial Rights. Karen also received support and contributions from Loretta Kreet, Senior Lawyer at Legal Aid Queensland who did significant second round editing of all the chapters, together with members of her team. Thanks particularly to:

- Catherine Uhr and Bryony Walters on issues relating to social security legislation
- Alex Nielson, Kristy Bloomfield and Charo Weldon for their first-round edits
- Lucinda Jodrell Sweeney for the provision of administration support on the project

Loretta was also assisted with information from:

- Zoe Watson, from LAQ, for providing family law expertise on property settlements
- Narelle Ferrier from the Australian Restructuring Insolvency & Turnaround Association on estimated costs of PIAs
- Ana Oertel from the Caston Legal Centre for information on hosting online
- John Fisher, from AFCA for providing access to bankruptcy authority form.

Disclaimer

The Financial Rights Legal Centre disclaims all liability for errors or omissions of any kind whatsoever, or for any loss or damage in whole or in part, arising from any person relying on any information in this handbook. Bankruptcy law is a dynamic area with frequent developments. Although this online resource will be updated as new information becomes available, readers should make their own enquiries to ensure information is up to date.

May 2024